

PACIFIC COAST.

A Compulsory Railroad Ferry Order.

NEW ARMAMENT BUILDERS.

One Purpose of Santa Ana Valley People—End of Marine Engineers' Strike.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Herald. SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—The Railroad Commissioners have issued an order requiring the Southern Pacific and South Pacific Coast Companies to reschedule their present system of punctuating Commutation Ferry tickets, and to return to the old rule of punctuating back dates and dates in advance, that has of late been ignored by the ferries.

JURISDICTION DENIED. The companies' attorneys consider the matter outside the jurisdiction of the Board. The Board will probably cite the head railroad officers of both companies to appear and show cause why they should not be punished for contempt.

THEIR ACTUAL POWER. It is within the Board's jurisdiction to fine the companies not to exceed $5000, and to impose a punishment of one year in jail.

THE NEW ARMAMENT.

Coast Competitors Count on Climatic Conditions.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—The Union Iron Works of this city, will bid for the construction of two of the steel cruisers and two of the steel gunboats, authorized by the last session of Congress. The conditions prescribed for speed are taken into consideration, as the specifications require that men managing such works must feel that they can, with the aid of skilled employees, the natural resources of metal on this coast, and the advantages of the climate to work all the year round, compete with the shipyard owners of the East.

SANTA ANA VALLEY.

Its People of One Purpose See Newness Rising.

ANAHEIM, June 4.—The settlement of the question of right of way and location of depot grounds in this town for the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe road has caused a great rush for landed property, and the sales for the past ten days have aggregated $400,000. Today a special train arrived from Los Angeles, with several hundred land speculators, who were driven from Anaheim to the new town of St. James, four miles distant, where an auction sale of land was held under the management of W. H. Holabird, who has charge of the town site of the A. T. and S. F. Railroad Company. A limited number of lots were sold to spirited bidders, the sales reaching over $20,000. A number of lots were sold with the provision that business blocks should be immediately erected. This new town of St. James is eligibly located with magnificent water privileges.

An electric light company has been organized which will use the adjacent water-power that has been leased for a term of years.

SANTA ANA, Cal., June 4.—A private sale of town lots came off this afternoon at Olive Heights, a new town on the A. T. & S. F. R. R., the sales aggregating $20,000. Olive Heights will soon be illuminated with the electric lights.

WHICH MEANS VIGOR. SANTA ANA, Cal., June 4.—A special excursion train was run to day from Los Angeles to Anaheim, to attend the great auction sale of town lots at St. James, on the line of the A. T. & S. F. R. R. The sale was a grand financial success, aggregating $20,000. The Layman Hotel, at the corner of Fourth and Main streets, was sold to a syndicate to-day for $58,000, an advance of $11,000 in fifty days. The directors of the Santa Ana Irrigation Water Company at Olive Heights have purchased a Brush electric plant to furnish the electricity for lighting up the Santa Ana valley.

NEW SUBDIVISION.

It is reliably rumored that D. Whitney is about to subdivide his Aliso Grove ranch, it having been guaranteed for depot facilities by the A. T. & S. F. Railroad company. Contracts for the survey and water piping are let.

Marine Engineers' Strike Ended.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—The strike of the marine engineers employed on the steam schooners is virtually over and the result is a victory for the men who have been granted an increase of wages as asked for, and also the assistant engineers required. This evening the steam schooner West Coast will depart with F. A. Braz, engineer, and two firemen, after a load of green wood at Whitesboro, on the Northern Coast.

Rare Windfalls of Wealth to Californians.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—M. Wertheimer, wholesale butcher, is in receipt of a letter from his sister residing in Baden, Germany, to the effect that they are among the heirs to the estate of their uncle, Leopold Mayer, who died in India some twenty-five years ago, leaving an estate valued at about $30,000, 000, which the German government now has possession of. The letter states that five of the heirs residing in California, viz: M. Wertheimer, Mrs. F. Uri, M. and J. Wertheimer, of San Francisco, and Mrs. J. Kern, of Sacramento, together with Mrs. Solomon, are all entitled to one-third of the estate.

A COUPLE OF FIRES.

One the Result of Carelessness in Running a Kitchen Fire.

VALLEJO, June 4.—Early this morning a large barn, situated in the Deniss addition, owned by Mrs. J. E. Williston, was destroyed by fire. The barn contained sixty tons of hay and a lot of furniture, all of which was destroyed. The origin of the fire is not known. This afternoon a two-story residence, owned by Mrs. E. Fitzmaurice, situated in the northern part of town, was also destroyed; loss $1000. No insurance. The cause was undoubtedly a kitchen accident.

PLACED SAN DIEGO.

The Usual Small Burglary for a Small Bundle.

SAN DIEGO, Cal., June 4.—Burglaries and robberies are getting to be almost nightly occurrence (cheat) in this city. The police have not even managed to get a clue to the perpetrators, let alone make an arrest. Last night between the hours of 10 and 11 o'clock, the wagon-making establishment of J. W. Westcott, on Sixth street, was entered by cracksmen and the whole front of the safe blown out. They obtained quite a large sum of money, but Mr. Westcott refuses to state the exact amount.

ANOTHER ONE. This morning, about 4 o'clock, the inmates of the house of J. M. Payne on Twelfth street, were awakened by noises. Before any one was dressed the intruder left, but came back in a short time, and was seen on the front porch with a bundle of tools done up in a blanket, which he had stolen from the house on his first visit. The son of Mr. Payne gave a shot at the fellow with a revolver, when he threw up his hands and backed off the porch. When the boy fired again the man fell to the ground, saying: "My God, you have killed me," but in a minute more he jumped to his feet and ran away leaving a bundle of tools and a revolver behind. He has not been captured.

W. E. Fitzhugh, and passed assistant engineer Henry Herwig, as captain. Capt. Selfridge was recently suspended by Admiral Chandler of the Asiatic squadron, and was ordered to report to the headquarters at Washington. The suspension is due to the unfortunate killing of some Japanese during practice firing from the warship Omaha, then under command of this officer. He went to Washington, and is now returning to his station. Capt. Fitzhugh, who goes with him, has been detailed for duty as president of a court of inquiry which has been ordered by Secretary Whitney at the request of Capt. Selfridge.

Hayes will Attend the Wheeler Funeral.

MAJOR TRUMAN TO EUROPE.

Another Rich Girl—A. T. Stewart's Will Contest—O'Brien and Lansdowne Dividing Popularity.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Herald. MALONE, N. Y., June 4.—Mr. Wheeler, whose vitality had been decreasing slowly through the past six years, retained his usual vigor up to perhaps six months ago, and from that date he failed rapidly. He was tortured terribly by insomnia and neuralgia, and was also afflicted with catarrh of the bladder. On the night of the 3rd of March last he was seized with a chill, followed by a sinking spell and then by fever, and for hours his physicians thought him dying. He never fully rallied from that attack, and mind and body wasted together. There had probably been softening of his brain, and for weeks he was irascible. His brain affection was the immediate cause of his death. There is universal sorrow among the people. Flings are at half mast, and emblems of mourning are displayed everywhere. The funeral will be held at 1 P. M. on Tuesday, June 7th, at the Congregational Church, with a sermon by the pastor, to whom Wheeler was a member. A second funeral, President Cleveland has been apprised of his death and date of the funeral. Ex-President Hayes sent a telegram of condolence, and signified his intention to be present at the funeral.

NEW YORK, June 4.—The attorney for Henry Hilton served his answer to the Stewart will case to-day. The suit is brought by Prescott Hall Butler against Henry Hilton to compel the latter to make a settlement under the will of A. T. Stewart.

BUTLER'S FEELING INTEREST.

Butler is one of the devisees, and the suit is an attempt to secure an explanation of Judge Hilton's administration of said estate, as well as Butler's wife is a grand-niece of Mrs. Stewart. The answer avers that all the property mentioned in the schedules annexed in this action sought to be partitioned was devised by the devise from Alex. T. Stewart, and therefore none of the persons named in the complaint were of the blood of Stewart.

HILTON'S DECLARATION.

Hilton further declares that the said persons are not heirs at law and next of kin of Cornelius M. Stewart. Hilton denies that the balance of the Stewart estate was as great as has been stated by complainant, and avers that the Hilton was not the cause of the failure to file an inventory and accounting.

MONEY-MAKING GOVERNMENT.

Adams Says Uncle Sam Got Rich out of Railroads.

BOSTON, June 4.—The final session in Boston of the Union Pacific Railroad Investigation Commission was held this morning. President Adams, of the Union Pacific, was the first witness. He said the consolidation was a "violation" for all railroads. It was very apparent, he said, that the whole matter of consolidation has benefited the country exceedingly. Any attempt to sever consolidation would be exceedingly unfortunate. Much had been said about the fact that a large portion of the stock of the Union Pacific and Kansas Pacific was issued for construction purposes and was not to be paid for in cash; but witness declared there had been paid in more than sixteen per cent in cash than to stock of the Union Pacific. Witness believes that, however much may have been held by private individuals there is no party in the country that has made so much out of the Union Pacific as the Government of the United States.

FOREIGN.

Speech of Gladstone in Wales.

SUMMARY OF PARIS DEATHS.

The Zealand Ministry Dissolves—Strategy of European Affairs.

Associated Press Dispatches to the Herald. LONDON, June 4.—A monster procession in honor of Gladstone was held at Swansea, in Wales, to-day. Gladstone, with several prominent Liberals of Wales, occupied a special stand from which he reviewed a parade of 100,000 Welshmen wearing rosettes and bearing banners, and accompanied by numerous bands, who marched past the grand stand. Cannons were fired, and the greatest enthusiasm prevailed.

PARTICULARS OF THE MARCH.

The procession was over five hours passing the review stand. After the men all passed they massed to hear Gladstone, who spoke an hour.

HIS SPEECH.

He said there was a waste of time in the House of Commons due to the fact of the Correlation bill having been badly framed was badly conducted, wanting a basis of facts, extravagant, insidious in its objects and totally mismanaged, as well as misconceived. Lord Salisbury's complaint of obstruction was unmanly and effeminate. His fatigued conservatives should be given a longer holiday. He warned them that they would be even more tired for it would be impossible to permanently govern Ireland coercively in the light of day and in an atmosphere of freedom.

HE ASKS A QUESTION.

Gladstone asked the Welshmen if they believed the Irish to be human beings, full of noble qualities. He was confident the Welshmen would sympathize with the Irishmen in their difficult and arduous contest in which every triumph would be absolutely certain.

THE BANQUET HIM.

A banquet was given Gladstone this evening by the Welsh members of the House of Commons and the officials of the Liberal party.

SUMMARY OF FIRE DEATHS.

PARIS, June 4.—The final estimate of the victims at the burning of the Opera Comique, places the number at 130, including the remains of forty persons found in the ruins. Some were so badly burned as to be unrecognizable.

New Zealand Ministry Dissolves.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 4.—By a private telegram received in this city, it is learned that the New Zealand Government was defeated in a test vote taken in the Colonial Parliament on Wednesday, when the Ministry at once resigned. Parliament was at once dissolved and an appeal to the country was taken. The next regular election has been set for September next. The telegrams did not state the question upon which the vote was taken, but it is supposed to have been on the question of finance.

EUROPEAN AFFAIRS.

Scheming and Counter-Scheming Among Nations.

BERLIN, June 4.—The divisions in the French Chamber have shown that the Right intends to give a solid vote for the Moderates.

ESTIMATES OF THE PRESS.

The North German Gazette, Kreuz Zeitung and other German organs, are brimming over with articles rejoicing in the prospects of peace and evincing an optimistic tone generally. It is assumed that the spirit of Chauvinism is for a long time at rest with the retirement of General Boulanger, and that peace is assured for an equally long time.

PROBABLE DURATION OF PEACE.

A high official of the government here was asked how long a time peace was secured. His answer was: "For this year, and if the Czar meets the two Emperors in the autumn and consents to sign the alliance, probably for five years." The nature of the Russian response to Prince Bismarck's overtures, however, is doubtful.

RELATIONS WITH RUSSIA.

The assertion of the Kreuz Zeitung regarding the restoration of friendly relations with Russia is borne out by no apparent fact. On the contrary, the Pan-Slavist press continues to display hostility to Germany and practical enmity to the representation of any German endeavor in the Baltic provinces, and of Russian trade and traders everywhere in Russia continues unabated.

RUSSIAN EXCLUSIVENESS.

The latest instance of Russian exclusiveness affecting the Germans, is a proposed law of naturalization, which has just been submitted to the council of the Empire. M. Kaizeroff urges the government to make the conditions of naturalization so of performance that it would be impossible for foreigners to become naturalized citizens in order to make fortunes and afterwards return home.

OFFICIAL CIRCLES.

Official circles do not share in the sentiments of the official press toward Russia. Prince Bismarck is determined to conciliate the Czar, as he considers that by so doing he would, to a considerable extent, soothe irritation and settle the differences that now exist. The first instance of this conciliatory policy is his acceptance of the ukase restricting foreigners' rights in Russia. The Austrian Cabinet has asked Germany to join in a protest against such ukase, and in an interview on Monday with Count Sezenyeni, the Austrian Ambassador, Prince Bismarck assented to a common action against the ukase.

Sezenyeni went the next day to Vienna, supposing that affair had been arranged by Prince Bismarck's change of front communicated to the Austrian Government on Wednesday, and to-day Count Sezenyeni's recall from Berlin is announced.

CAUSE OF RESIGNATION.

The Fremdenblatt says he resigns for private reasons, but the fact is the Vienna Foreign office resents this sudden alteration in Germany's policy, the first effect of which is that Austria abandons her efforts to interfere with the Ukase because she cannot effectually protest.

alone against a measure equally affecting German and Austrian subjects.

THE NOTABLES.

Among the German notables who have been victimized by the Alien Act are Prince Von Hohenlohe and Prince Von Radziwill. Prince Von Hohenlohe holds an extensive property in Guellet, while Prince Von Radziwill owns about half of the whole circle of Minsk. Sir William White, the British Minister to Turkey, who has estates in Poland and a post of Austrian, German and French aristocratic families who are land owners in Poland, will take private, yet concerted action to influence the Czar in case of failure of the powers to take action against the Ukase.

THE DESTROYED BANDIT.

Friendly Co-operation of the Two Governments on Mexican Line. MATAMORAS, Mex., June 4.—The particulars of late action between the Mexican cavalry under Col. Hernandez and the Mexican bandit recently driven from the Bolsa cut-off by aid of the civil authorities of Texas, have been received.

THE PARTICULARS.

The bandits numbered twenty-eight, and are believed to have been under the command of the noted Lazaro Ayala, from Nacama. Hernandez lost one man killed and three wounded. Fourteen of the bandits were captured and immediately executed. The remainder are being hotly pursued and mounted men from all quarters of that vicinity are supposed to be closing in on them.

CO-OPERATIVE AID.

It is reported that a case of rifles was sent to these bandits by the revolutionary party in Brownsville. The civil and Mexican military authorities are working in union to break up the banditti, which for over forty years have infested the various cut-offs along our border.

WE MUST MEET THE ISSUE.

England Peremptorily Demands that the U. S. Make Answer.

OTTAWA, June 4.—An additional paper in relation to the seizure of the British whalers in Behring's Sea has been laid before Parliament. The report declares that the master and mates, after remaining several months in prison, were released by order of the Governor of Alaska and turned adrift literally destitute, to find their way as best they could to their several homes, 1500 miles distant. The Privy Council concurs in the request of the Minister of Fisheries that the attention of the United States authorities be again and immediately called to these injuries of British subjects, and suggest a full and speedy reparation.

PURPOSELY GENERATED BITTERNESS.

MONTREAL, June 4.—A bitter feeling has been provoked by O'Brien's campaign among the church and political factions. It is claimed that it will probably result in the making of Lansdowne's proposed visit to the city unpleasant. He is to attend the military review in honor of the Queen at the jubilee. It is claimed that owing to the advice of the Montreal Post he may be accorded the same character of reception as that given to O'Brien in other cities.

BALTIM

DAILY HERALD.
THE SENSATION OF THE SUMMER.

BY MISS BELLE MEADE SMITH.

From Mrs. Perry, at Cape May, to Mrs. Hamilton in Rome.

My Dear Sister:—Since the financial cyclone, which two years ago made me a beggar and my poor husband a suicide, I have not been as happy as I am at the present time. We are pleasantly located, Agnes and I, at the Surf House, of which our old friend Lewis Irving is the proprietor. Our room is large and airy, and commands a fine view of the sea, which, as I write, is crowded with bathers, old and young, hideous and beautiful. I am not strong enough to buffet with the waves, but it gives me new life to witness the enjoyment of others. Agnes takes a dip every morning. She is a perfect mermaid, and her bathing attracts considerable notice. Indeed, although she is only the poor nobody whom Mr. Irving has employed to furnish his guests with music, she is a decided belle. I confess I cannot understand her popularity; but I have no doubt that if it was not for her devotion to Charlie Keybold, of whom you know, I have always disapproved, she would contract a marriage worthy of a young lady of her education and accomplishments. One Count Romeo Angelo, who arrived here some time ago, and over whom all the women are going mad, is paying her marked attention. I regard the matter merely as a flirtation, but, under the circumstances, his admiration for Agnes is complimentary. He is young, handsome, and apparently wealthy; and I do not see how any girl to whom he tries to make himself agreeable could escape loving him. Yet Agnes seems indifferent to him, and when I enquire of her, she often tells me that she is not in a position to offer her wife and daughter. I can only hope, if possible, to break her engagement, and to encourage the Count.

From Mrs. Hamilton in Rome, to Mrs. Perry at Cape May.

My Dear Sister:—I am well acquainted with the Count Angelo, whom I can assure you is all that he purports to be. If he is attentive to my niece, it is not as you assume, a matter of amusement, but the result of an affection with which she has inspired him. With your superficial knowledge of him, it is impossible for you to discern his characteristics or to fashion his purposes, but I understand him, and am not surprised that he is attracted by Agnes's fine mind and pure nature. I could desire nothing better for my own daughter than a marriage with Angelo, who is in a position to offer his wife wealth and distinction. If possible, induce Agnes to break her engagement, and to encourage the Count.

From Count Romeo Angelo, at Cape May, to the Countess Peshelero, in Rome.

My Dear Sister:—When, before I crossed the Atlantic, you assured me that I would become the victim of one of America's daughters, I laughed at the supposition. But your prophecy has been verified. She whom I love is poor, but she is also qualified by worth and education to grace the best society. She is tall and slender, with an interesting, although not a beautiful face, and a manner so unmistakably thoroughbred that she is certain under all circumstances to attract attention. Doubtless you will ask me, why it is that, as she has neither position, nor wealth, nor the aid of a powerful family, I have hitherto preferred, I love her. I shall tell you. She is the most companionable woman I have ever met. If she will accept me, I shall without delay make her the Countess Angelo. I promised to write you my impressions of the United States. I did not find Miss Perry more interesting than either the geography or the politics of the country. I should probably keep my word. I try to be impartial, but as I see little in the New World to admire, it is little that I can prejudice in favor of the antique. However, over-dressed women, familiar men and a confusion of culture and vulgarity, and a total emancipation from restraint, form a society that I can neither understand nor appreciate.

From Miss Agnes Perry, at Cape May, to Miss Edith Worthington, at Long Branch.

Dear Edith:—You beg me to write you frankly about myself. As I can do so without violating your peace of mind, I shall, as briefly as my occupied time will admit, comply with your request. Mamma and I are spending the summer at Cape May, where it is her duty to get well, and mine to tire my fingers and overtax my voice, and the amusement of the idlers who crowd our hotel. But as mamma is like herself once more and I am well paid for my services, there is no cause for complaint. Besides, I am having a pleasant time. I have received several excellent proposals of marriage and have been the recipient of many flattering attentions. I do not wish to be untrue to myself or to anyone else; neither do I aspire to become a coquette, but Mr. Irving insists upon me keeping my engagement a secret and making myself agreeable to whomsoever seeks my society. Have you heard of my affair with the Count Angelo? I suppose so. I confess if it was not for Charlie I should love him. He is devoted to me. What sort of a countess would I make, my dear Edith, and in simple ways? But the Count is waiting to take me out for a drive. So for the present adieu.

From Miss Edith Worthington at Long Branch, to Miss Agnes Perry at Cape May.

My Dear Agnes: I wish I had a Count. I should know at once, what to do with him. Take my advice. Break your engagement, marry the Italian, and when you go to his palace on the Arno, (you see I have heard all about him,) I invite me to spend my winters with you there.

From Mrs. Hamilton in Rome, to Miss Agnes Perry, at Cape May.

My Dear Child: Romeo has written me of his affection for you, and your indifference to him. Are you mad, that you thus prefer Charlie Keybold to the Count Angelo?

From Miss Edith Worthington, at Long Branch, to Miss Edith Worthington, at Cape May.

Dear Agnes: The Count is here, with your letter of introduction to me. He sought me the day after his arrival. He is my constant companion; not because he admires me, but because I talk to him of you. He is very unhappy.

From Charles Keybold in New York, to Miss Agnes Perry at Cape May.

Agnes:—Ardenly as I love you, I am compelled to denounce your inconstancy. For months I have been hearing and dismissing, as unworthy of my attention, rumors of your conquests, but your intimacy with the Count Angelo, I shall not bear. You must either separate from him, or you must either yourself free to love and wed whomsoever your wayward fancy may approve.

From Miss Agnes Perry at Cape May, to Charles Keybold in New York.

My Dear Charles:—At first I felt in-

STATE FAIR

Sacramento, Cal., September 12th to 24th, 1887.

$2000 IN CASH FOR COUNTY EXHIBITS.

SPECIAL ATTENTION OF THE FARMING COMMUNITY
is called, as well as the various Immigration Societies, Boards of Trade of the several counties, and all others interested in bringing out the resources of their respective counties, to the advantages offered by

An Exhibition at the State Fair

Of the varied products of their counties. The Supervisors of each county are invited to make a liberal appropriation, sufficient to pay the expenses of getting together an exhibition of county products. Premiums received can be returned to the treasury of each county making the appropriation, so that their respective counties would be written up and advertised at a small expense by an exhibition of this character. The Railroad Company transports the exhibits connected with the State Fair is sure to attract Eastern visitors anxious to view the resources of California.

Apply for space at once, as the Society is willing to devote the entire exhibition building, if necessary, to displays of California products. A new feature has been added to the premium list this year, in the shape of awards for a Sheep Display of Cereals. Forty shires, not less than 10 inches in diameter, of ten varieties of grain, are called for. Not necessary to be grown by exhibitor. Notice is now given that samples may be gathered during harvest and laid away for exhibition. Address the Secretary for premium lists and other information.
EDWIN F. SMITH, Secretary.

GREAT CREDIT SALE OF LOTS IN MARQUETTE.

The model city, MARQUETTE, one mile east of Magnolia and Ontario, 600 feet higher than the townsite of Ontario, with a frontage of 2640 feet on the Santa Fe Railroad, outside the wind belt. A never-failing supply of the purest mountain water, of 10 inches, piped at high pressure through the town, is deeded with the land. The soil is a rich, warm loam, precisely the same as that in the famous Cucamonga Vineyard, the finest in California, near which Marquette is located. Marquette is the center of the most productive fruit district in Southern California. The view from Marquette is unsurpassed, and commands the whole of that rich and fertile valley from Pomona and Rindon, over the Chico Ranch, to Riverside, Colton and San Bernardino. A magnificent hotel is now being built at Marquette. A large force of men are engaged in making the streets and other improvements. EDWARD FRASER, a man of wealth and culture, is devoting all his energies to the improvement of the new town.

they would receive revenue enough from it in the increased value of the lands they would reclaim to justify them in making large expenditures to properly dispose of the sewage received. Such a company, to secure the largest returns possible from their venture, would doubtless become the owners of extensive tracts of land between the city and the ocean. There is a large percentage of these lands that is now of very little value that could be made first-class for cultivation by receiving our sewage; and a company such as we speak of could afford to give a better price for them than any other possible purchaser. If we are not mistaken in the keen foresight of some of our enterprising men of capital, such a company will not fail to soon be incorporated, and make to the city a tempting proposition to take all its sewage. When the idea we throw out has crystallized, the reasons for completing a perfect system of sewerage for our city will become irresistibly weighty, and a strong pressure of public opinion will be brought to bear in favor of the inauguration and carrying out of the important and beneficial work.

LORD RANDOLPH CHURCHILL is one of those plain-speaking politicians who can be always relied upon for a sensation when he makes a public speech. At a great meeting at Wolverhampton two evenings ago he let us into some damaging revelations about the covert corruption which obtains in the army and navy departments of Great Britain. He tells a little story about how forty-three large and costly guns had been ordered to be made by the Armstrongs in a suspiciously defective manner. When the Armstrongs pointed out the defects of the drawings for the pieces, they were told to mind their own business. The guns were cast according to specifications. One of them was placed on a warship, and at the first discharge it burst in pieces. Then the whole forty-three were condemned. This little story alone cost the Treasury a cool million dollars. He also said that every department of the military service was supplied with defective weapons, and that the transportation facilities of the navy were contemptible. This exposure will astonish not only the English people, but everybody else. We had thought that crookedness and corruption were to be found in the British administration. But it seems that it has its Robesons and Belknaps as well as the United States. It has been the fashion for English papers to sneer at our Republican form of government because it was liable to abuse by selfish and designing men in public places. If Churchill speaks the truth, the "bright little, tight little, isle" is not free, even if not a Republic, from public men who go for public plunder.

A DISPATCH from Canajoharie, New York, informs us of the death of Albert J. Johnson, who was Under-Sheriff of this county during Mr. Rowland's first term as Sheriff. Mr. Johnson was one of the captors of Tiburcio Vasquez, the noted bandit chief, who was surprised in the house of Greek George on the Cahuenga road, and taken after a number of shots had been fired disabling him. It was a very nearly carried out. It was known that Vasquez was in Greek George's house, but the difficulty was for the posse to get there without being seen. The bandit fled, horse, saddled and bridled, was at the door, and it was known that he would make a desperate resistance if brought to bay. A native boy happened to be coming along the road driving a boxed cart. The boy was stopped, and the party hid themselves in the wagon. After telling him to drive on without giving any sign of his presence. On reaching Greek George's house, they all jumped out and surrounded it. Vasquez was trapped. He tried to escape and reach his horse, but as soon as he showed himself several shots were fired, and the bandit was brought to earth, wounded, but not fatally. The death of Mr. Johnson will cause sincere regret amongst his many friends here, who remember him as a pleasant companion and a man of sterling qualities.

Report of the School Census Marshal.

We have received from Mr. Greenwell, the Marshal appointed by the Board of Education to take the school census of this city, the subjoined report. We have added to this year's census those of 1885 and 1886. It will be seen that whilst the increase of school children between five and seventeen in 1886 over 1885 was only 461, the increase of 1887 over 1886 is a very remarkable jump, and one that provokes inquiry for the large number of new school houses demanded by the School Trustees. The table shows other striking facts incident to our rapid growth, which will furnish food for thought to our readers. It is as follows:

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

School Bonds and Other Matters of Importance.

The Board of Education met last evening in the Council Chambers, Dr. Joseph Kurtz, President, in the chair, and Mrs. Anna S. Averill, Messrs. F. S. Graham, C. N. Earl, C. P. Thurston, and Superintendent W. M. Friesner present. The minutes for several past meetings were read and approved. The Finance Committee reported favorably on numerous bills, which were ordered paid. The Secretary's report, showing a balance of $15,354.62 on hand, was adopted. The Committee on Janitors reported that the janitors of the Hellman street school had been removed for neglect of duty and insolence to the teacher. The action of the committee was sustained, and her salary was ordered paid in full. A complaint was received from G. F. McEllan in regard to several insurance policies, who claimed that Mr. Desmond was making a percentage on letting the contracts.

Mr. Thurston stated that he gave the policies to Desmond in good faith and had no idea that he was making a percentage as claimed. The Board was not to be blamed in the matter and that it be placed on file. On motion, Mrs. Averill and Mr. Earl were appointed on a committee to arrange for the commencement exercises of the High School which will take place this week from to-morrow evening. The committee were given the power of engaging the opera house if possible, for Monday evening, the 27th of June.

Superintendent Friesner stated that there seemed to be a desire to put off the matter of bonds. The idea now was to force the board to furnish exact plans for rooms and buildings before the ordinance for raising bonds would be passed. This would take months, and there are now a very large number of children awaiting admission into the department.

Mrs. Averill moved that Mr. W. M. Friesner be elected Superintendent of public schools for two years. Some objection being made to the period of service on account of legality, the matter was postponed until the next meeting. The report of the census marshal was accepted. It was decided that hereafter the meetings be held on the second and fourth Mondays in each month. A. A. Hawley was elected chief janitor of the school department.

The Board then adjourned.

A Musical Project.

EDITOR HERALD:—In yesterday's paper you had an item which was obtained from the columns of the German paper here, but which contains several errors, which, I suppose, may be laid at the door of your translator.

Having spent nearly a lifetime in the profession of teaching music in the East, the total want of larger musical organizations in this city, (which I have selected as my future home) struck me upon my arrival here some six months ago. It is also a known fact, that California has never been represented in the National feast of the German singers; putting this and that together, I thought of organizing a body of singers with which, after a whole year's practice, I would undertake to represent this city in the East at the next feast to be held at St. Louis.

I wrote to the "powers that be" on the subject, and have received all the encouragement desired, and expect to receive copies of the songs to be taught at an early date.

What will be necessary to do after the receipt of the music, will be to organize a chorus of thirty-two or more singers, who will devote two nights of every week for a whole year to training and learning, and who will bind themselves to go East next summer for about six weeks' absence. The songs to be sung at the Festival are of course German, and the gentlemen comprising the chorus would necessarily be conversant with the language at least.

The organization, which would be representing this our glorious country in the East, would have to be composed of gentlemen in the full sense of the word, and no other would be received, wherever I had a word to say.

A. WILHELMITZ.

Passengers Departed.

The following left yesterday on the steamer Santa Rosa:

For San Diego—W. T. Hewston, C. H. Brooks and wife, J. P. Camming, L. Croft, L. Bonet, A. E. Baird, R. S. Sigley, Mrs. McEhane, Mrs. R. W. King, Miss Leasing, V. M. Adams, C. Dugan, R. D. Parris, C. J. Barnes and six in steerage.

Police Commissioners.

The Police Commissioners met yesterday afternoon, a full board present. Petitions were received and licenses granted to Julian Valdez and A. G. Martel for saloon purposes.

The petition of G. W. Woodward for a three-months' leave of absence was rejected. The Board then adjourned.

Blobson found his little boy crying the other day, and upon asking him what was the matter the precocious infant said: "Oh, pa! I'm afraid there's going to be a smashup. Ma said she was going to spank me, and she's just been rubbing nitro-glycerine on her hands!"

Years Teach More than Books.

Among other valuable lessons imparted by this teacher is the fact that for a very long time Dr. Pierce's "Golden Medical Discovery" has been the prince of liver correctives and blood purifiers, being the household physician of the poor man, and the able consulting physician to the rich patient, and praised by all for its magnificence and efficacy in all diseases of a chronic nature, as malarial poisoning, ailments of the respiratory and digestive systems, liver disease and in all cases where the use of an alterative remedy is indicated.
